I saw this undercurrent and this movement even about to hit the parliamentary area and the local area of government throughout Canada. It is going to about like a grass roots thing and it is going to spring up. For there is a disdain and a distaste in the mouth in a generation that feels like so much has been projected on them -that this is just the way that it is- this is what's normal- right is wrong- and wrong is right and all of those things.

I feel that there is a movement on the next generation that is called uprising.

The prayers of this generation and the generation before is about to prevail and avail much.

I felt like today as I was praying and knew you were speaking tonight, and I know you are part of Aglow, I felt like I am causing Aglow to ignite. I saw these shockwaves going throughout the land and I saw the scales of justice spin almost like a windmill until it was stopped and was balanced again.

I saw the Lord say that I am about to send reinforcement angels even into Canada. The Lord said I am about to overrule the plans, the schemes and the judgments of the enemy. I am about to initiate a righteousness and an uprising among my people that the Earth has never seen.

God is getting ready to expand your territory in this hour. God is anointing the church in Canada to be a preparer of the bride. I felt like the Lord said there is a glorious and a sovereign church that is beginning to arise and to come forth like we have never seen before. I heard the Lord say that there is a thread that is going to run through the nation and it is a thread of righteousness.

I'm about to raise up a remnant in government places and circles and you will begin to watch even as righteousness begins to overtake unrighteousness and light begins to overtake darkness.

I saw from BC to Nova Scotia and NFLD the hand of the Lord was about to move. I saw an accordion where you would begin to move it in and out and a sound would come. There is a sound from the north, there is a sound from the Canadian Church. There is a sound of even the intercessors beginning to rise up. I feel like there is this stirring right now of the anointing and the calling of the intercessor coming forth in the nation of Canada. You are about to experience a release like a holy convocation upon the land. I felt like the Lord said that there is an assembling of the Ekklesia together. There is a gathering of the Senate of God together and I felt like the Lord said many have put their heads in the sand -many have thrown their hands in the air saying I guess this is it.

I heard the Lord say that I am about to launch a counterattack. Do not be weary in holding your ground. Do not be weary in the waiting, for I am causing for there to be a shift even as December will turn into January, in the new year I am about to initiate the new thing. I am about to cause something to be stirred up in Canada that has never been seen before.

In BC, I just saw the hand of the Lord saying I have given this place for this hour in the Earth. BC was actually holding ground. I saw a church arise in BC that came from traditional and reformational roots that will begin to come out and become a church on fire.

In Saskatchewan I saw the hand of the Lord begin to bring unity. I saw a uniting church- a united front to begin to take place.

I saw Alberta begin to become dependent on the anointing once again. This is the season of the tipping point

I saw the hand of the Lord moving into Manitoba. I felt like the Lord said to declare miracles over Manitoba. I believe the Lord is about to cause Wpg to be like an outpost for salvation. I feel like there is going to be major evangelistic events getting ready to take place in Wpg. Wpg is about to be on fire for the Lord like never before. It is going to be a place where the lost get found.

And into Ontario I saw like the Lord taking His arms and wrapping His arms around Ontario. Ontario, this is the season that you are going to watch My harvest come. I heard the Lord say: Oneness! For you are going to know what is like to be one even as the Father and the Son are One. The season of Oneness is coming. This is the season that the harvest fields of Ontario are about to be reaped in the days that are ahead. That which has been held back is about to be released.

I saw the hand of the Lord coming upon Ottawa and I felt like the Lord said: I am turning the heart; I am turning the heart. I saw a gavel representing authority and I saw it shifting hands and I felt like there is about to be an abrupt shift. There is about to come like lights- laser beam lights upon things unrighteous. I saw the Lord beginning to change things and turn things around rapidly.

Into Quebec, I felt like the Lord said that I am about to what seemed to be one of the hardest places to evangelize and reach is about to become super easy. For I about to saturate it with my glory and you are about to see and hear the reports especially among the Catholics in Quebec. You are about to watch the hand of the Lord release a revival even among the Catholic Church in Quebec and Montreal and beyond.

In Nova Scotia I saw the Lord like shake it awake. I saw things dripping like a cloud begins to drizzle and then it began to downpour and to go even into the east coast of America. I saw even people who have relocated from on part to another for this season, I felt like Nova Scotia will be a place that gathers.

In NFLD I saw the hand of the Lord come. I am going to bring understanding to the misunderstood. I am going to raise up the Peters, I am going to raise up those who were like Peter and Andrew and are going to become fishers of men to the east.

From the east to the west across the provinces of Canada. From the rural areas to the cities, Toronto, Montreal and great places like that, the Spirit is about to move once again with His power and His might.

I say awaken the apostolic anointing in Canada. I say awaken the prophetic anointing in Canada. I say awaken the intercessors in Canada. I awaken the evangelists in Canada, I awaken the pastors that will release healing all over Canada. I awaken that teacher anointing that is going to be exported and spread around the earth from Canada.

I am going to make you a bright light in the North. We call forth the destiny of Canada.
